Topic/Activity

There are many different forms of dance: folk dance, social dance, fitness oriented dance, dance for entertainment, contra dance, dance as meditation, dance as art, sacred dance, etc. Dancing comes in many variations, from very stylized dances such as Hip Hop or Balinese Dance to the free form movement of Woodstock and Isadora Duncan (1877-1927). Many of us are uncomfortable with some forms of dance yet quite at home with other forms.

Closing Words

There is a vitality, a life force, an energy that is translated through you into action. And because there is only one of you in all time, this expression is unique, and if you block it, it will never exist though any other medium, and it will be lost, the world will not have it... Whenever a dance stands ready, that spot is holy ground.

Martha Graham to Agnes de Mille

I have no desire to prove anything by dancing. I have never used it as an outlet or a means of expressing myself. I just dance. I just put my feet in the air and move them around.
