A Message from our Minister

Creating Music Together

From the back of the sanctuary on Wednesday evening, I hear the hum of voices coming together as the UUCC choir practices. Music binders open, breath marks and reminders placed in their spots, hearts open, notes rising as music begins filling the space. The choir present to the process of creating music together, arriving as individuals from busy separate days, creating a time of connection and interdependence.

May this season invite all into a space where we too bring our open hearts, attention and presence into the creation of community. I wonder what beautiful music we will create together!

Love and Light,

Rev. Donna, she, her

The Shared Pulpit Class... A winter opportunity

“Using a series of small group meetings, this program aims to deepen connection and trust among participants—the seeking minds and caring hearts of Unitarian Universalists.... Along the way, you’ll discover your authentic voice by writing a sermon to deliver to the congregation.” ~ Erika Hewitt from her book and program guide, The Shared Pulpit, A Sermon Seminar for Lay People. Watch for more information about dates and registration. Class size will be limited due to the nature of the process. The class will be facilitated by Rev. Donna Dolham and Sara Hodgkins.

The Covenant Engagement Team (CET)

Our promise for December is: “Because we value our relationships with each other, we promise to: Get to know one another, created opportunities to gather, work, and play together, and build trust in our relationships.”

We’re wondering WHERE at the UCC you are gathering to work and play to together? WHERE are you building trusting relationships?

TELL US by using the poster boards in the Fellowship Hall. Just put a mark by each activity at church in which you are building relationships. At the end of the month, we’ll make a Word Cloud of your responses.

In fellowship,
The Covenant Engagement Team
The Rev. Donna Dolham, Michaela Loisel, and June Zellers

Social Justice Updates

The United Community Living Center is applying to the City of Augusta for a conditional use permit to open a day time community center for our unhoused neighbors. The community center will provide assistance with applications for housing, jobs, school, and services; medical, first aid, mental health and substance abuse services; and lockers, showers and laundry. It will also serve as a warming center during cold weather and a cooling center during hot weather.

The Augusta Planning Board will be hearing the request for the conditional use permit on December 10, 6 PM at Augusta City Hall. Please attend this meeting if you support the UCLC's effort to open a community center. People living in Augusta have an opportunity to speak and/or write letters of support. Please send letters of support to betsy.poulin@augustamaine.gov.

People living in neighboring towns make an impact by showing up. Please join US!!

The recipient of the December 15, 2024 Share the Plate will be the Augusta Overnight Warming Center at South Parish Congregational Church.

Augusta's Project Fresh Start is in need of a new location to continue its mission of providing donated home furnishings, kitchen appliances, dishes and other necessities to those in need. It is losing its current warehouse and is seeking about 3,000 square feet of free or affordable space in or near Augusta. If you have space to offer or ideas for donations, please contact Project Fresh Start at 207-530-6142.

Climate Justice Revival Follow Up: Thank you to all who enthusiastically participated in our October Climate service and the creative re-imagining of our future in the activity following the service. Board of Trustees

Dear UU Community,

During the Thanksgiving Holiday, UUCC shared in bountiful community together - with the Harvest Dinner, Holiday Bazaar, and the service on December 1st. Soon, we will be sprucing up the Drew House so that another family of New Mainers will have a home as they settle in with the support of Capital Area New Mainers - CANMP.

Our Board recently gathered for Sunday Brunch and we sat around the table checking in and sharing bits of our lives with one another. Time spent in these ways helps deepen and strengthen relationships. Giving to our community as you do in many different ways, is an act of love.

As I write, Angie and I are in Omaha, Nebraska visiting with her extended family. While here, we attended the Second Unitarian Church of Omaha on Sunday morning. With several of our own traditions woven throughout the service, we felt both at home while at the same time we missed you - our community of choice. UUCC is a place of comfort for so many. It is heartwarming to see how we welcome newcomers, support one another through personal challenges and celebrate the good in our lives. Love is very much at the center of our community.

I look forward to seeing you at church soon.

In gratitude,

Michaela Loisel, Board President
